

Third Symposium on Amazonian Languages (SAL3)
March 16-17 2019
University of California, Berkeley
1229 Dwinelle Hall

Saturday, March 16 2019
9:30	Documenting historical networks: Language and territory in northwest Amazonia Patience Epps (UT Austin) & Karolin Obert (Universidade de São Paulo)
10:00	Social variation in Sanapaná vowel productions in an exemplar theoretic perspective Jens Van Gysel (University of New Mexico)
10:30	Phonological and lexical influence in a Tukanoan society: Indexing a mother's language and marriage alliances Wilson de Lima Silva (University of Arizona) & Frank José Carrasquilha Matos (Universidade Federal do Amazonas)
11:00	BREAK
11:30	Aspects of a revised phonological description of Kakjwakhrttxi (Jê) Jérémie Beauchamp (UC Santa Cruz)
12:00	Acoustic analysis of the effects of glottalized consonants on Yuhup tones Lorena Orjuela (UT Austin)
12:30	LUNCH
2:00	Prosody and nasality in two Panoan languages of the Yaminawa dialect complex Livia Souza & Tadjou-N'Dine Mamadou Yacoubou (Rutgers University)
2:30	A typology of nasal and voiced stops in Paraguayan Guaraní, Mbyá and Kaiowá (TG) Myriam Lapierre (UC Berkeley)
3:00	Rethinking a split in the analysis of Mbyá nasal harmony: A case study in simplifying the analysis of Tupí-Guaraní nasal phenomena Lev Michael (UC Berkeley)
3:30	BREAK
4:00	Relative clauses and other functions of nominalization in Shiwilu Alonso Vásquez (UC Santa Barbara)
4:30	Agentive nominalizations as nouns in Pastaza Kichwa Barrett Hamp (Brigham Young University)
5:00	The decline of Jê ergative case? Bernat Bardagil-Mas (Berkeley)

Sunday, March 17 2019
9:30	Mirativity, Egophoricity, and Epistemic Modality in Yaminawa (Pano, Peru) Kelsey Neely (UC Berkeley)
10:00	Diagnosing the meaning of a morphological opposition in Kari'nja (Cariban) Spike Gildea (University of Oregon)
10:30	Speaker and addressee in spatial deixis: Experimental evidence from Ticuna and Dutch Amalia Skilton (UC Berkeley)
11:00	BREAK
11:30	Reconstruction of A'ingae prenasalized stops Scott AnderBois & Chelsea Sanker (Brown University)
12:00	Toward Proto-Tukanoan Tone Stephanie Farmer (UC Berkeley)
12:30	LUNCH
2:00	Some Outcomes of the Kawahíva Language Documentation Project. Wesley Nascimento dos Santos (UC Berkeley)
2:30	Non-verbal Clauses and the Multifunctionality of Copulas in Caquinte Zachary O'Hagan (UC Berkeley)
3:00	Creating Cariban Postpositions: A (Sometimes) Bipartite Lexical Class Jordan A.G. Douglas (University of Oregon)
3:30	BREAK
4:00	A diachronic view of clitic-fronting negation in Enxet Sur John Elliott (University of Hawai'i)
4:30	From standalone pronouns to agreement enclitics in Tuparí: Syntactic ramifications of grammaticalization Adam Singerman (University of Chicago)